New Garage in West Fifty-fourth Street Leased to the Harrolds Motor Car Company-An Elevator Apartment

House Facing Morningside Park Sold.

Very little business was transacted in the realty market yesterday. However, the brokerage news contained several items of interest. An elevator apartment house facing Morningside Park, a West End avenue dwelling opposite the Schwab mansion and a small parcel in the speculative section of Thirty-second street near Seventh avenue were among the properties that changed ownership. Old law flat and tenement neighborhoods downtown and in Harlem were fairly well represented in the trading. The new constructions for which permits were issued by the Building Department included one flat in Washington Heights and a few two family dwellings in on Grymes Hill, Staten Island, through Cornelius G. Kolff to Ansco G. Cruinier.

This property, which is considered one of the finest on Grymes Hill and was long the home of the Wendt family, embraced about three acres and commands one of the grandest views of New York harbor.
